

NJLM Recognizes Affordable Housing Committee Members for Outstanding Work

The League of Municipalities recognized the contributions of three mayors who took the time to help develop sound, rational affordable housing legislation that represents the interests of all of New Jersey's municipalities. League president, Mayor Chuck Chiarello of Buena Vista, presented certificates of appreciation to East Windsor Mayor and NJLM 2nd Vice President Janice Mironov, Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr and Bridgewater Mayor and NJLM Executive Board Member Patricia Flannery. League Senior Legislative Analyst Michael Cerra was also acknowledged for his work on this issue.

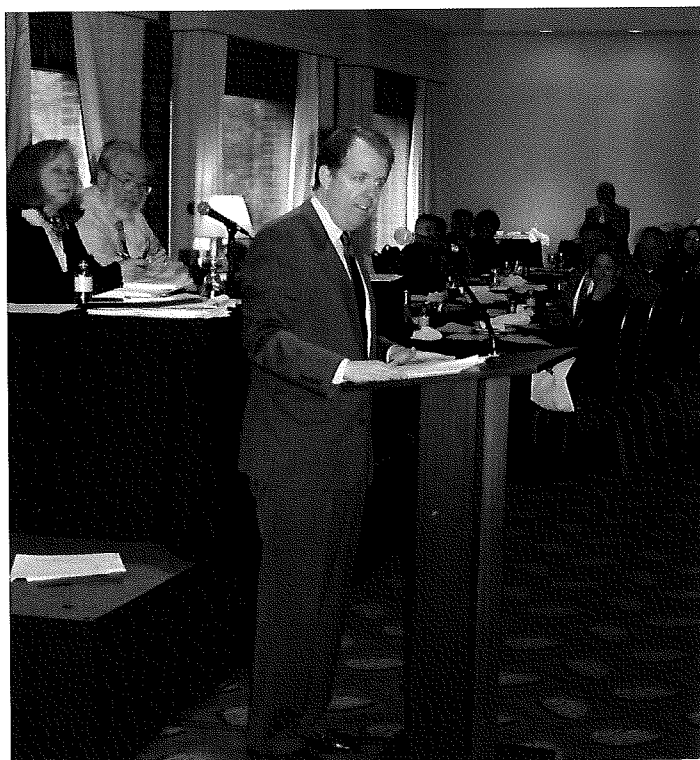

"Mayors Mironov, Mahr and Flannery, with the assistance of staff member Michael Cerra, have worked tirelessly over the past several months," said League President Chiarello. "They deserve our thanks. We are also grateful to all the others who have helped to craft League policy in this area over the years." ▲

League President, Mayor Chuck Chiarello of Buena Vista presents certificates of appreciation to East Windsor Mayor Janice Mironov; Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr and Bridgewater Mayor Patricia Flannery (not pictured). League Senior Legislative Analyst Michael Cerra was also recognized for his work with the mayors on affordable housing legislation.

State Treasurer Addresses Legislative Committee Meeting

State Treasurer Andrew Sidamon-Eristoff addressed the League of Municipalities' Legislative Committee on Friday, April 8, 2011. The Treasurer presented an overview of the proposed State Budget, the impact of the proposed pension and health reforms and answered questions regarding municipal property tax relief. ▲

State Treasurer Andrew Sidamon-Eristoff addresses the League of Municipalities' Legislative Committee on Friday, April 8, 2011.